

In the short story 'My Polish Teacher's Tie' there are more examples of figurative language at the start of the story. True/False